Hodge Says Guilty

Ex-Auditor Is Removed To Hospital

... Sentence Delayed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U.P.) — A nervous and visibly shaken Orville E. Hodge was removed from his jail cell Monday night and sent to a Springfield hospital, several hours after he had pleaded guilty to defrauding the state in a million dollar financial scandal.

Hodge, deposed Republican state auditor, spent about seven hours in his Barren Sangamon County jail cell before he was removed to St. Joseph's hospital.

His removal was recommended by Dr. Paul M. Cadwell, Springfield psychiatrist who previously had said Hodge was suffering from nervous strain akin to wartime "battle fatigue." County authorities approved the transfer.

Pleads Guilty

Hodge, 51-year-old dapper free-spending politician who once aspired to the governor's chair appeared in Circuit Court earlier in the day to plead guilty to his part in the check writing scandal.

He was remanded to the Springfield jail after the judge ignored his attorneys' pleas that he be sentenced immediately. Hodge is scheduled to be sentenced next Monday.

When Circuit Judge Clem Smith announced a week's delay before fixing punishment, the once influential state official slumped in his chair with head bowed, haggard look on his face.

Hustled To Jail

Hodge, who had been free on $100,000 bond, was hustled to the Sangamon County jail and placed in a cell tier with seven other prisoners. When he arrived, he was wearing a grey silk suit with striped tie and white shirt.

The state charges against Hodge include 329 counts of forgery, embezzlement, confidence game and conspiracy with possible prison terms ranging from 1 to 5 years and 1 to 15 years on each count.

KNIGHT WOULD BE 'HONORED' TO TAKE NO. 2 SPOT

LONG BEACH, Calif. (U.P.) — California's Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said Monday he would be "honored" to accept a Republican vice presidential nomination.

Addressing a state labor convention, he said he has not sought such a nomination, "nor have I authorized anyone to organize a campaign toward that end." Then he added:

"Anyone in public life would have to be less than honest if they would not be honored to accept (such a nomination), however."

The Republican governor has repeatedly said he supports President Eisenhower strongly and will support Eisenhower's choice for vice president.

Knight has refused, however, to endorse Vice President Nixon in advance of the latter's nomination.

Georgia Presents Convention Gavel

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (U.P.) — The Democrats' official gavel, presented to the National Convention Monday by Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia, was made from hickory grown on the grounds of the former little White House at Warm Springs, Ga.

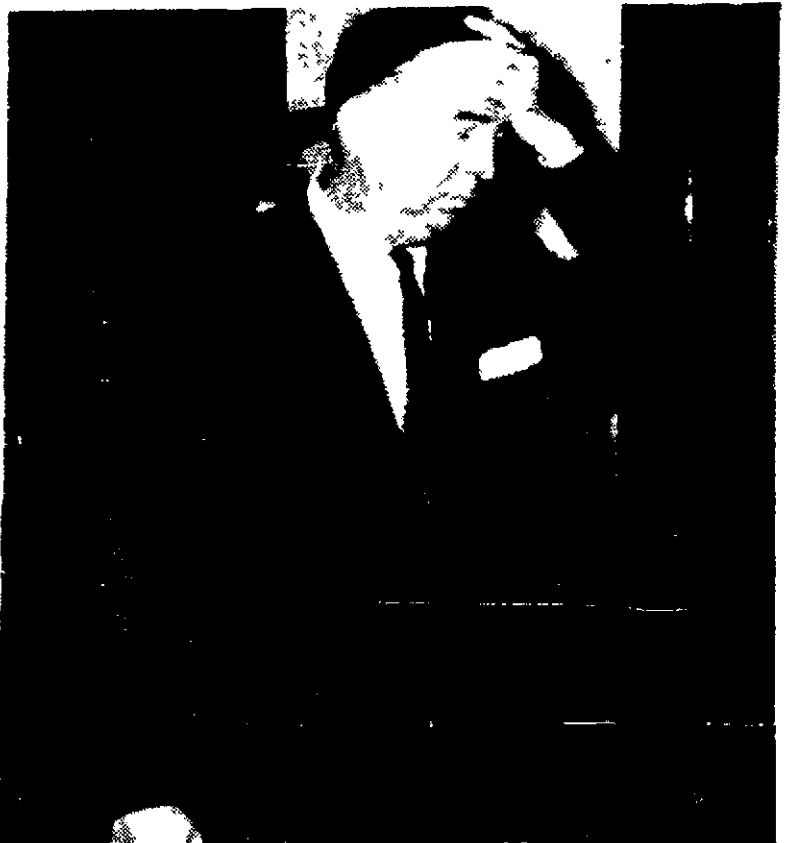

The mention of the man who made Warm Springs famous, Franklin D. Roosevelt, brought the first rousing cheer from the delegates.

Paul Butler, Democratic national chairman, in accepting the gavel, said he was particularly happy to get it since, he said, it came from the only state in the Union which invariably has gone Democratic.

Another Wildcat Discovery Listed

SIDNEY, Neb. (U.P.) — The 29th wildcat oil well discovery in western Nebraska was reported by Shell Oil Co. The well is the Mosier No. 2, in Banner County in what the company calls the west Bridgeport area. A drill stem test recovered 1,647 feet of clean oil.

In Cheyenne County, Ohio Oil reported a producer in the O'Connell No. 3 southwest of Sidney.

PLATFORM TAKING SHAPE—

Demos Propose Income Tax Cut

... GOP Prosperity Claims Assailed

CHICAGO (AP) — Democratic platform drafters proposed Monday night that their party pledge a $200-a-year increase in personal exemptions under federal income tax.

This would put the exemption at $800 a person. It would save lower income families an average of about $40 a year for each member. For a family of four this would be a saving of $160.

This recommendation was proposed by a 16-member drafting subcommittee of the convention's Platform Committee. It will be laid before the latter group for approval probably Wednesday night.

Committee experts estimated such an exemption would result in a total reduction of five-billion-dollars a year in income taxes, based on present rates.

Called An "Illusion"

Earlier the drafting committee had taken issue hotly with the Republicans' claim that they had created a "record of prosperity" for the nation. In a tentative plank on domestic policy, the drafting committee said the claim of prosperity was an "illusion" for many groups, including farmers, low income workers, aged persons on pensions and young persons seeking education.

The drafters said, in a plank on financial policy, that "a fully expanding economy can yield enough tax revenues to meet the inescapable obligations of government, balance the federal budget and lighten the tax burden."

They said the immediate need was to grant tax relief to lower income groups to "correct the inequities in the tax structure which reflect the Republican determination to favor the few at the expense of the many."

If returned to power, the Democrats said, their party will "release the springs of abundance, to bring this abundance to all, and thus fulfill the full promise of America."

Indictments ... Promises

These indictments and promises were written into a platform plank entitled "Domestic Policy" by a 16-member drafting subcommittee of the convention Resolution's Committee. This plank, along with others, will be laid before the latter committee Tuesday for approval.

In another tentative plank, the drafters also charged the Eisenhower policies on atomic energy threaten to give other countries the world's lead in developing this new instrument.

The drafters drove ahead on their task of writing other planks, including one on the explosive civil rights issue and on foreign policy.

Hearing Set

The City Council has set the date of Sept. 10 at 1:30 p.m. for hearing on the proposed condemnation of a building at 1109 Garber.

South St. Widening Is Ordered

A resolution ordering in the resurfacing and widening of South from 30th to 48th has been approved by the City Council.

The action followed a report by the city legal department to the effect that more than 50 per cent of the abutting property was signed in favor of the project.

The cost of the project, not yet officially estimated, will be split approximately 50-50 between the city and adjoining property owners. Months have been spent in securing the required number of signatures for the work.

Also approved by the Council were bids received on resurfacing of four downtown streets. They are: 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

Also approved was a $125,000 estimate for a storm sewer in Glade from 52nd to 58th; 58th and Glade from 52nd and South and in the intersection of Franklin and Crestline Dr.

A $98,000 estimate was approved for pavement reconstruction in 16th from Holdrege to Y and a new Antelope Creek conduit under 16th just north of Y.

Reds Deny Any Yanks Are Held

... Reply To U.S. Note

MOSCOW, (Tuesday) (U.P.) — Russia denied today that it is detaining any U.S. Air Force or Navy fliers from planes shot down by Soviet pilots.

The denial was in a note to the American Embassy from the Soviet Foreign Ministry. It replied to a U.S. note to Moscow July 16.

The American note accused Russia of holding American airmen, some missing more than six years, and demanded information on them.

Two Planes

The U.S. note referred specifically to two American planes. They were a Navy Privateer lost over the Baltic with 10 men aboard April 6, 1950, and an Air Force B-29 that went down with 12 aboard over the Sea of Japan or near Kamchatka June 13, 1952.

The Russian reply said the Soviet Union had made a "careful investigation" of the reports U.S. servicemen were being held in Russia and found them to be "baseless and erroneous."

Reports of the detention of U.S. personnel came from persons released from detention in the Soviet Union, the U.S. note said.

Moscow radio said the reply was delivered to the U.S. Embassy in Moscow.

WALTER REUTHER FOR ADLAI

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Walter Reuther, the Auto Workers Union chief, came out formally Monday night for Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Reuther, a powerful influence in the Michigan delegation which has 44 Democratic convention votes, told a reporter:

"I'm for Stevenson. Everybody knows I'm for Stevenson. I don't see I should make a big production out of it."

Previously Reuther had been reported as favoring Stevenson, but he had never said so flatly.

Break Indicated

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — President Eisenhower probably will take a two week break from his regular news conference schedule because of the national conventions, the White House indicated Monday.

There will be no meeting with the press this Wednesday James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary announced.

He didn't say why, but it was presumed the reason was the Democratic National Convention now under way in Chicago.

Brooklyn Lawyer Wants M'Arthur For U.S. Senator

NEW YORK (U.P.) — A Brooklyn attorney announced Monday formation of a new political party. He said a major objective would be to get Gen. Douglas MacArthur's name on the November ballot as a candidate for the U.S. Senate.

The attorney, Gerard M. Carey, said the group would be called the Independence party.

There was no comment from MacArthur.

Carey ran for the State Senate in 1954 on the Republican ticket and was defeated in the June primary for Kings County Republican leader.

Vet Dies After Snub By Doctor

Coroner Accuses VA Hospital

NATCHITOCHESS, La.

Dr. W. H. Pierson, Natchitoches Parish (County) coroner, said Monday a veteran died of an abdominal infection a few hours after he was turned away from a Veterans Administration hospital as insane.

Dr. Pierson said an autopsy revealed Woodrow Davis, 43, Creston, La., died last Friday of "fulminating generalized peritonitis, caused by a ruptured peptic ulcer."

The coroner said Davis died while being returned home about 30 minutes after he was refused treatment at the VA hospital in Alexandria, in central Louisiana about 60 miles southeast of Natchitoches.

No Examination

Findings of the autopsy, he said, were not made public until Monday.

He said the hospital medical officer on duty at no time made any attempt to examine the patient, who arrived with his service discharge papers.

He identified the medical officer as Dr. Parvey.

Dr. Pierson said he had not filed VA officials in Washington and the Veterans of Foreign Wars organization of the circumstance surrounding Davis' death.

Chiefs Predict Down-The-Line GOP Platform

SAN FRANCISCO (U.P.) — The 1956 Republican platform will be a "down the line" endorsement of the Eisenhower administration, party leaders indicated.

They settled down Monday to drafting it for next week's Republican National Convention.

Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, said:

"This is an Eisenhower convention. We will have a platform that is true to the basic Eisenhower philosophy."

Early arriving party leaders were greeted Monday by a call for "hard, devoted work" in the President's message, addressed to "Republicans everywhere" and printed in the 160 page convention program.

Sen. Bush and other key leaders will meet Tuesday to work on rough drafts of platform planks which Bush has been preparing in conferences with Eisenhower and other administration and party leaders.

-Suez Crisis- Arabs Rattle Sabre

West Is Warned Against Force Over Canal

LONDON (U.P.) — The Arab world warned the West Monday against using force in the dispute with Egypt over the Suez Canal. And the British Labor party demanded that Prime Minister Eden publicly guarantee Britain will not attack Egypt.

Britain pressed a buildup of air, land and sea power in the Mediterranean despite the warnings.

Delegates of 22 nations were gathering in London for Thursday's conference, arranged by Britain, France and the United States, to consider international control of the canal. Egypt and Greece refused to attend.

Accord

In Washington, the State Department reiterated complete accord with Britain and France that there should be "international means to insure the practical and efficient functioning of the Suez Canal."

Behind the scenes there was a feverish search for a diplomatic compromise that would enable both President Nasser of Egypt and Eden to save face.

To co-ordinate his diplomatic moves with defense strategy, Dulles met with Defense Secretary Wilson, Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. Alfred Gruenther, American Supreme Commander of the Atlantic Pact armies in Europe.

Press Avoided

After a 40 minute talk, all three left the department, using Dulles' private elevator to avoid reporters. Other developments during the day:

1. A British government spokesman said some British troops are being pulled out of Germany in view of the Suez crisis. They will bolster the strategic reserve in Britain. Presumably they replace troops shipped to the Mediterranean.

'Angered People'

2. In Damascus, a government spokesman said Syria has told Britain and the United States it might be unable to protect American and British oil pipelines across Syria against sabotage from "an angered people" if the West attacks Egypt.

3. Salah Osman, special Egyptian envoy to Indonesia, said in Singapore Egypt is ready for any eventuality, including "the dynamiting of the Suez Canal" if necessary.

4. Two flying boats began ferrying wives and children of British employees in the canal zone to Malta en route to Britain.

An emergency meeting of Arab League leaders in Cairo adopted a resolution saying Arab countries "consider any aggression against any Arab country as aggression against all other Arab countries."

Bodies Returned

TOKYO (Tuesday) (INS) — Communist North Korean officials turned over to American authorities the bodies of five U.S. soldiers who died during the Korean fighting, according to a Pyongyang broadcast.

The North Korean Red Radio, heard in Tokyo, said the remains of the American servicemen were handed over in Korea's demilitarized armistice zone. No further details were given.

GW PURE SUGAR

"No Sugar is Better Suited to All Purposes than GW"

Well, We're Not Any Worse

Predictions that farm income for the last half of 1956 will exceed that of the corresponding period of 1955 have been made by the Tenth Federal Reserve District—the one of which Nebraska is a part.

It attributes the brighter prospects to improved weather conditions, farm legislation, production adjustments and the high level of the nation's economy.

But lest anyone touch off a premature day of jubilee, the report loses its brightness on further examination. The expected improvement only promises to return this area about the same income it received from agricultural production in 1955 which was no year to brag about. The 1955 drought brought crop shortages whose sales, reflecting in the first half of '56, saw the first five months of this year dip 11 per cent below last.

And such recovery as is counted on will stem mainly from improved production rather than on an improved relationship of price and cost. In short the report mainly gives evidence that the farm economy after slipping dolefully the first two years of the Benson administration will stage little if any comeback from the previous low point in 1956. That is not much of a recommendation for Dr. Benson, nor much of an occasion for joy for the beleaguered producer.

Security For The Disabled

For those who can meet the law's requirements October 1 will usher in social security payments for the seriously disabled aged 50 or over. Thus the law for workers' security initiated 20 years ago continues to be extended and rounded out. The philosophy of general contribution to individual security is growing in acceptance.

The nearing of the deadline when applications will be received by local social security agencies requires less generalization on the subject of eligibility. The law is not a blanket guarantee. It has its requirements and its limitations. It is well for potential applicants to keep in mind that they must have maintained coverage one and a half years of the last three, coverage for half the time since 1950, five years coverage in the last 10 years. And they must be unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a provable affliction of mind or body expected to result in death or long continued disability of continued duration.

This will by no means include all who find or feel themselves unable to continue work after their fiftieth birthday. But it cannot be gainsaid that where the law does apply the comfort and aid will be timely.

America has come far in the development of a national brother's keeper conviction. If there are those who do not think it better and who yearn for the good old days we suggest a searching study of the America of 100 years ago. Examined in detail they were not so good.

Suez Is A Specific Case

Up to his elbows in the bargaining at the Democratic convention the versatile former president, Harry Truman, still had enough time to spare to pitch a few upsetting thoughts into the Suez problem.

He reminded the press that he had once taken the position, which he still holds, that all such waterways ought to be internationalized. He mentioned the riverways serving the needs of adjacent European nations and the Panama Canal.

As a generalization there is not much wrong with the Truman statement. In detail it is subject to considerable debate. And apropos of the present Suez question it is not applicable. The remedy for Suez does not lie in internationalizing the Dardanelles or the Panama Canal or perhaps the Rhine River. Do all that, and the Suez question still remains what it was, the question of the propriety together with justice to the world, the owners of the canal and to Egypt.

Coincidentally Russia, ever ready to cook a mess of bad potage for the Western world, has already dragged in the Panama Canal and further bolstered Premier Nasser of Egypt with the statement that the question of nationalization has no bearing on the question of securing freedom of navigation, that it is a fully legal act under Egyptian sovereignty.

Such positions, like the Truman generalization, fail to go all the way. The nationalization of Suez is not an abstract matter, nor is the continuing maintenance of the Panama Canal as a U.S. responsibility. Both canals have been operated for the use of all nations without prejudice. Both have had responsible and competent administration and adequate maintenance. Both have been backed by powers strong enough and wise enough to maintain a generally used utility. Egypt's case moves into the speculative area that raises real questions, first, of the long range stability of the present revolutionary government, second its intent, whether it is contemplating the responsibilities of conducting a world service or resorting to a money-making expedient, third its ability to maintain and guarantee by strength and position the fair and open use of the canal. A nation must be more than just a legal owner of such a service to assure its integrity. The United States does take responsibility for the Panama Canal, and under treaty remunerates Panama annually for the use of the waterway, but it also assumes the heavy load of guaranteeing its just use, a thing that Panama is not strong enough to do.

Indeed, the attempted seizure by Col. Nasser of Suez is the very kind of a contingency that illustrates the wrong that can make a world-ned waterway a pawn of power politics rather than a dependable and well-intentioned service.

Say It Isn't So

A news dispatch insists that President Eisenhower has, or intends to honor his former secretary of the Air Force Harold Talbott with the chairmanship of the Air Force Academy Foundation, a non-profit corporation to raise funds to supply extra-curricular activities at the new school. This is one time when almost everyone hopes the press is in error.

The memory is still fresh on the fact that Talbott left office under the cloud of conflict of interest. The Washington Post comments that, "Mr. Talbott displayed considerable acumen for extra-curricular activities when he was in a position of high responsibility, but he also showed a considerably underdeveloped sense of ethics. The disclosure that he had been using his official position to solicit business for a private firm in which he was interested is what compelled his resignation."

Under the circumstances should Mr. Eisenhower give him the foundation honor there would be the connotation that the administration is not only callous to breaches of propriety but also indifferent to its public responsibility.

Almost Perfect

The police department at Lansing, Michigan, ever mindful of super service is now presenting a photograph to whomever it arrests for traffic violation. The officer snaps a picture of the violator and his car while in pursuit and a quick developing device allows the honored person to meditate over the picture while the officer does the book work on the summons ticket. What with personal attention, radar and photography the customer now receives about the ultimate, except one thing. The police still cling to the old-fashioned habit of fining people.

Poll Shows Herter, Estes VP Favorites

CHICAGO — With the big question mark at both Chicago and San Francisco centering on the nominations for vice-president, the Washington Merry-Go-Round has conducted a poll of newspaper editors publishing the column. These editors—600 of them—cover the entire country and include an average cross section of both Democratic and Republican papers.

The question asked them was: whom do you consider to be the most effective candidate for vice-president in the Republican and Democratic parties? The results showed Governor Herter of Massachusetts running ahead of Vice President Nixon, and Senator Kefauver of Tennessee running ahead of Senator Symington of Missouri. Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota received only a scattering of votes.

Here is the detailed reaction of editors:

On the Republican ticket:
Herter 41 per cent
Nixon 37.5 per cent
Sec. of the treasury
Humphrey 11 per cent

On the Democratic ticket:
Kefauver 35 per cent
Symington 26 per cent
Sen. Kennedy of Mass. 16 per cent
Sen. Humphrey of Minn. 4.5 per cent

CHICAGO-GO-ROUND

Ex-President Truman's statement on civil rights was mild compared to the private views he aired. Less than 30 minutes before his public testimony, he told Minnesota's Senator Hubert Humphrey that the Democrats should take a strong stand on civil rights. "We should make our position clear," he said firmly. As for Southern reaction, he snorted: "You know we got along without those boys in 1948." ... Southern leaders agreed at a secret caucus to behave like Southern gentlemen and not cross-examine Negro witnesses testifying in favor of civil rights. However, Georgia firebrand John Sammons Bell blurted out: "I agree not to cross-examine Negroes, but I don't know if I can resist cross-examining those labor leaders."

Governor Harriman should be nominated at least as the most persistent candidate. He has been working twenty hours a day, visiting and telephoning delegates. For a full month before the convention he telephoned ex-President Truman daily for advice. Harriman has also personally talked to nearly every Kefauver delegate. For example, he telephoned Kefauver's Iowa chairman, Cecil Malone, four times. All Malone got from Adlai Stevenson was an impersonal telegram. Other delegates have received as many as 13 communications from Harriman headquarters in one day.

A surprise visitor at the Democratic convention was Chief Justice Earl Warren's daughter, Virginia. She popped in at Stevenson headquarters and greeted Stevenson's white-haired campaign lieutenant, Hy Raskin, with a gleeful kiss. Though a daughter of the nation's second most prominent Republican, Miss Warren explained she loves conventions so much she decided to attend both the Democratic and the Republican ... Gwen Gibson, girl reporter for the New York Daily News, tried to sneak an advance copy of the Democratic platform by posing as a young Democrat volunteer worker.

She helped mimeograph a lengthy platform, which turned out to be the young Democrats' platform—which was not worth less ... Ex-Secret Service Agent John Walker caused surprise gasps when he strode into the Democratic platform meeting. He's a dead ringer for Senator Joe McCarthy. (Copyright, 1956, By Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

DORIS FLEESON

Less For Ave Than To Stop Stevenson

CHICAGO — Harry S. Truman has undertaken to harden the mood of the Democratic convention into a more aggressive and liberal mold. His further stated purpose is to secure the nomination for Averell Harriman of New York.

He can do the first part—but only if the South allows it by joining in the stop-Stevenson movement.

It is extremely unlikely that he can do the second. The powerful Stevenson forces in the big states are now filled with arsenic and old lace sentiments toward Harriman. Against Harriman, they would be backed by the Solid South.

Truman is much too adept a politician not to perceive this. His intensive reading of history also shows him that the end result of convention war to the knife is a man without enemies. Such a man would stand little chance of defeating President Eisenhower.

The conclusion is inescapable that Truman has personal motives which he may not fully understand himself.

An old associate warned him that he was building a situation in which his party would wind up with another John W. Davis, the Wall Street corporation lawyer who wound up with the debris of the Smith-McAdoo vendetta in 1924.

"Oh, no," Truman replied. "Before I would let that happen I

BOB CONSIDINE

They Did It In The Old Days, Too

CHICAGO — Any reporter who goes up on his facts at the Chicago or San Francisco conventions just hasn't taken the trouble to lift one of the manuals and handbooks prepared in advance by the wire services, a few newspapers and the networks. Months in preparation, these documents bear the hallmark of U.S. journalism, accurate reporting.

One learns from the "1956 National Convention Handbook" compiled by Bill Theis of International News Service, such things as:

The word "caucus" is Indian for elder or leader ... The device we call the convention, unknown in the earliest days of American politics, was contrived by the anti-Mason party in 1831. Andrew Jackson whipped the first Democratic national convention into being in 1832 to drum up interest in Martin Van Buren as his running mate ... The Republican party was born in Pittsburgh, February 22, 1856 ... John Tyler cried himself into the presidency. Seems that he was so riled at the 1840 Whig convention for nominating William Henry Harrison over Henry Clay that he burst into tears. The convention promptly chose him as its vice presidential nominee. Harrison caught pneumonia at his inauguration and died a month later, making Tyler president.

John W. Davis was nominated on the 103rd ballot at old Madison Square Garden in New York in 1924 ... A permanent chairman is assisted by a parliamentarian, a reading clerk and a sergeant-at-arms ... GOP National Chairman Len Hall was a sheriff before he became a surrogate judge, and he went to Georgetown ... Adlai Stevenson was managing editor of the Bloomington (Ill.) Pantagraph ... President Eisenhower won by 6,616,223 votes, carried 39 states, received 442 electoral votes to Stevenson's 89 ... and so forth.

Songs were lustier in the old days of politicking. One that helped drive Andrew Johnson out of office went, "Drive out old Andy, his treachery and sin, break all his bottles of brandy and gin. Put in his place our young bright rising star, the wise little general who smokes his cigar."

It doesn't seem likely that there can ever again be a campaign that will approach the rancid bitterness of the 1884 campaign. The Republican, James G. Blaine, was assailed with a chant that went, "Blaine! Blaine! James G. Blaine! The Continental Liar from the state of Maine!" Cleveland, charged with having an illegitimate child, heard everywhere he went, "What Mat! Where's my pa? He's gone to the White House—ha! ha! ha!"

MARQUIS CHILDS

Truman Attempts Kingmaker Role

CHICAGO—In the months immediately after he fell heir to the presidency, following the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry Truman complained bitterly of the loneliness and the isolation of the lofty office in which he found himself. He told his callers that he knew at least a hundred—sometimes he said a thousand—men who were better qualified than he was to be president.

But nearly eight years in the White House and a victory in an election campaign in which everyone counted him out gave Truman a different view of himself and the world. Power is a heady wine and so is the constant adulation that comes from the associates of a man in the most powerful of all offices.

The former president said he had reached his decision to support Gov. Averell Harriman for the Democratic nomination after he had talked with many people in many walks of life. But the fact is that in his four years out of power he has been surrounded by many of the men who were close to him when he was in the White House. These have been for the most part the lesser luminaries who if they could not shine in his reflected glory would not shine at all.

Thus Truman has in a sense been isolated in the same sense that he was isolated in the presidency. The men around him, the ex-office holders, have told him day in and day out what a great man he is and how potent is his voice in the Democratic party and the country. No man is immune to that kind of flattery.

Some of these lesser luminaries have been principals in the Harriman For President movement. They have played a leading part in persuading Truman that he could, first, sway the delegates at the convention who seemed preponderantly for Adlai Stevenson and, second, having made Harriman the nominee he could then use his magic to put the man of his choice in the White House. Samuel I. Rosenman, former counsel to President Truman and a leading Harriman strategist, has maintained during the past few days such a close watch in the Truman suite that it has been almost physically impossible for anyone to present a pro-Stevenson view without being subject to Rosenman's surveillance.

Harriman has himself played this game. He has never missed an opportunity to flatter the former president and to declare that only a Trumanesque, give-'em-hell type of campaign could possibly win for the Democratic nominee. This is, of course, equating 1956 with 1918 when Truman campaigned with the full power of the presidency at his back.

The Stevenson strategists believe their man will still be nominated, although they frankly admit that any hope of a first ballot nomination is now ruled out.

Except among the ardent partisans of Harriman, there are few here among delegates or observers who believe that the New York governor can himself get the nomination except after a quarrel between the North and South wings of the party so fierce as to make it an empty honor. This is true even though Harriman has gone so far as to call prominent Southerners to strictly private conferences to try to assure them that he was less radical than Stevenson on the race issue.

But what Truman has done is to further the warfare among the quarreling factions in his party: the factions of the frustrated and the embittered might have been that come to the surface when a political party is out of power. This is bound to have a damaging effect in the fall even though the delegates finally unite behind Stevenson.

There was only an outside chance that a popular hero such as President Eisenhower could be defeated in an era of high prosperity. That chance has been reduced by an appreciable degree.

Truman was so obviously pleased with himself as he walked into the jam-packed Blackstone ballroom where, by the shrewd suspense he had carefully created, he was bound to get the widest possible coverage of all the mass media. This was his show, this was his party. This was power.

He had a great deal to do with nominating Stevenson in '52 and now he was tapping another candidate. One of Stevenson's problems four years ago was standing clear of the Truman embrace so that he could speak to the American people on his own. He respected and admired Truman, but he knew he could never conduct a Truman-type campaign, and he understood, too, the serious handicap of many things in the Truman record as that record had been magnified by an overwhelmingly critical press. It takes little imagination to see how Harriman as a candidate would be subordinated to Truman.

During his recent European tour, where he enjoyed so hugely the homage of a Europe grateful for the Marshall Plan and the other bold and courageous moves of the Truman administration, the former president called on former Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Here was a striking contrast, for Churchill has in fact turned control and direction of his party over to others. He gives no public statements, no interviews. His role in the British election of 1955 was to speak briefly in his own constituency and to campaign for his son-in-law, Christopher Soames. He carefully shunned the spotlight.

Truman might take a lesson in retirement from his old friend Churchill. But at 72, four years removed from office, he has chosen the role of kingmaker. It is a role that has often in the past broken those who undertook it and left them only with the sour sense of defeat and recrimination. (Copyright, 1956, By U.F. Syndicate, Inc.)

One-Partyism

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I feel that the administration of our state government has fallen into a dangerous complacency because government officials are responsible only to the elements that control the Republican Party's nominations. In other words, the government officers do not have the responsibility of serving even the majority of the Nebraska electorate. Rather, they have only to keep influential Republicans happy with political favors.

An audacious example of this is to be found in the Nebraska Game Commission where the latest Anderson appointee seems to know the "hang of things" already. As I see it, he apparently recognizes his heritage in complacency and is, quite true to form, rewarding the special few with special privileges.

When I see the people's demand for an investigation of suspected misdeeds at the Penitentiary stealthily refused, I wonder just how far this complacency has reached. In handing down their decision, I think the judges scraped the bottom of the barrel for a reason when they said the grand jury investigation would cost too much. This is putting a price tag on justice and saying it's too costly to be enjoyed by Nebraskans. It seems ridiculous for the judges to consider the grand jury useless because "it could do nothing unless a violation were uncovered" when we don't even know that there have not been any violations. The grand jury seems to be Nebraska's means of divulging violations, and until a better means is initiated, we should use it!

Probably the worst symptoms of this government complacency are to be found under the Board of Control where, I think, many decisions and appointments have been motivated by an effort both to satisfy campaign friends and to cover up poor administration. I am in a quandary about the qualifications to reform and correct criminals, of such persons as the custodial head of the State Capitol and a man whose work has been in criminal-chasing rather than in character-building—respectively, one a political payment and one resulting from poor administration.

I suspect that comparably intolerable situations exist in many other branches of our state's government. I am familiar with the Board of Control situation due only to the efforts of such men as George L. Morris and Dr. Sandritter who have put responsibility to the people above personal considerations. As I see it, these persons were confronted with the unique position of having knowledge of government inequities which the public should have had but which the public had access to only through these key persons. Even though publicizing this knowledge might well have harmed their own well-being at the hands of the "powers that be" in government (as it well did Mr. Morris), these persons saw their ultimate duty to the citizenry and made the knowledge known. Where in business an employee's responsibility may be to his boss, in government it should always be to the public.

The areas of sincere criminal correction and equal apportionment of justice—even under hunting laws—affect us all and more directly so than one may think. Complacency's encroachment into these areas should be reason enough for Nebraska citizens—Democratic or Republican—to shed the barnacles of this complacency accumulated on a voyage too long in one direction and to set a fresh course with a new skipper—George Morris.

It is to be hoped that Nebraskans will recognize their chance to return government to the type of independent leadership for which Nebraska was once known and that they will see good men not only in the similarity of names (George L. Morris—George W.

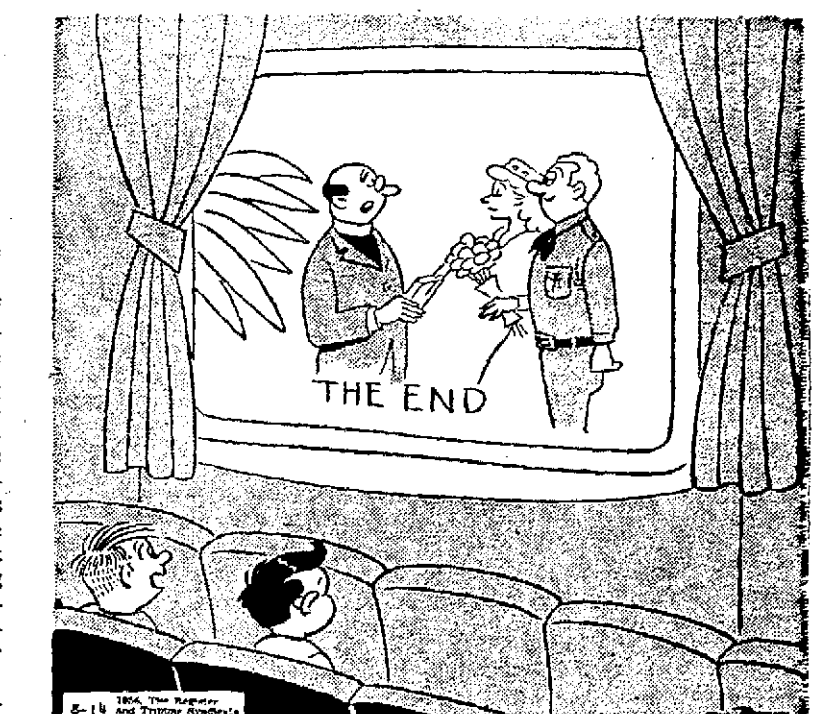

Norris) but also in the similarity of George Morris's independent responsibility to the people—a quality he has adroitly demonstrated—to that same quality in George W. Norris. Although George Morris is a new face to Nebraska voters, I feel that he represents an old and once proud tradition of independent thought in Nebraska politics—a tradition which while being submerged for many years in one-party registration is not so remote as to be out of our electorate's reach.

The "manifest destiny" of one party in office too long is complacency. Almost two decades of unbroken one-party control are too much even for Nebraska. The results are now to be seen in the state administration under a governor whom I believe to be one of the worst, and in our congressional delegation which, I hear, actually claims to represent Nebraska's interests. Ultimately the blame for this magnitude of complacency lies alongside our only salvation from it in the Nebraska electorate itself—an electorate which through habitual one-partyism over the years has enfranchised the Republican party machine solely with the selection of government officers. This can and indeed must be stopped with your vote for George Morris next November!

Eight Youthful Politicians Trying To Outmaneuver Each Other For No. 2 Spot

By RUTH MONTGOMERY
CHICAGO (INS) — Eight youthful, dynamic politicians, eyes eagerly scanning the 1960 presidential horizon, are quietly trying to outmaneuver each other for this year's No. 2 spot.

The precedent-shattering bid by top-flight candidates for the lonely berth once reserved for throat-bottom nonentities is the real paradox of this Democratic clamor.

The key to the phenomenon lies in the significant fact that not one of the eight—six senators, one mayor and one governor—risks the loss of a single paycheck, or the slightest subtraction from his political career if his own vice presidential boomlet collapses. Each is immune to political downfall, even if his party again bites the dust this November.

None is up for re-election this year. Further, since the eight potential candidates range in age from a mere 39 to 53, they can bask in the nationwide publicity and patiently bide their time for four more years.

Man to Watch

The front runners for the vice presidential spot are senators John F. Kennedy, Mass.; Estes Kefauver, Tenn.; Stuart Symington, Mo.;

Hubert Humphrey, Minn.; Lyndon Johnson, Tex.; and Albert Gore, Tenn., Governor Frank Clement of Tennessee and Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City.

The man to watch during this crucial lull before the Thursday storm is Lyndon Johnson, a presidential aspirant of no mean proportions until his heart attack last summer. Still the Texas favorite son candidate, but a more likely contender for the vice presidency, Lyndon holds the ace card because of his staggering influence over the once-solid South.

House speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas is reportedly urging Lyndon to release the Texas delegation to Adlai Stevenson immediately in order to launch a speedy landslide before former President Truman can get his Averell Harriman bandwagon off the ground, where it seems currently stalled.

Lyndon, a shrewd strategist and incomparable compromiser, is expected to do just that, but—a king-maker at heart—he feels that the time is not yet ripe. As Lyndon goes, so will go much of the South—a factor which gives Stevenson camp followers the jitters every time that he so much as shakes hands with his good friend, Stuart Symington.

Symington, most likely presidential darkhorse in the remote event of a convention deadlock between Stevenson and Harriman, is also available for the second place spot on the ticket. Missouri's favorite son, he is in an enviable spot to even old scores with Truman by withdrawing in favor of Stevenson—should the presidency appear unobtainable for himself. Truman, who while President appointed Symington secretary of air, later tried unsuccessfully to defeat him in the Missouri senatorial primary race.

Humphrey, darling of the Northern liberals, is also reportedly acceptable to some practical Southern delegation chairmen in the event that Stevenson heads the ticket. These Dixie gentlemen have privately conceded that a Yankee liberal is inevitable as a running mate for the Illinois "moderate," and that the loquacious Humphrey would probably lead the most effective and hard-hitting campaign against Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Some significance is being read into the fact that a group of Southerners wearing Lyndon Johnson buttons serenaded Humphrey.

Currently the forgotten man at this rig-snooping political convention is coon-skin Estes, the happy warrior who tossed in the presidential towel at the eleventh hour in favor of Stevenson. Should the '52 party standard bearer again capture first place, he would be heavily indebted to the Tennessee senator for his dramatic endorsement.

Little Justice

But hard words were spoken between the two men during the heated primary campaign. Estes was unable to swing many of his delegates to Adlai, and there is notoriously little justice in love, war and politics.

Keynote Clement, a handsome orator of the William Jennings Bryan school, could add a measure of conservative Southern luster to a liberal Harriman ticket, but is unlikely to score on a Stevenson bandwagon because of the political unbalance. A young man in a hurry, Clement nevertheless is being cautioned by some supporters to wait out the next four years, in the hopes of sunnier Democratic prospects.

Crisis Said Grave

LONDON (U) — Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia said President Nasser's seizure of the Suez Canal has precipitated a world crisis "more grave than any since the Second World War ended."

Menzies, here for Thursday's international meeting on Suez, told a British TV audience acceptance of the nationalization could "encourage other acts of lawlessness" and bring down the Western standard.

New Salary Classification Schedule Set

... With Raises For Most County Employees

By VIRGIL FALLGON
Star Staff Writer

A new salary classification schedule with minimums and maximums for various jobs has been announced for Lancaster County employees.

The County Board is expected to announce at its regular meeting Tuesday additional salary adjustments effective Sept. 1 for various workers.

Merit Basis

Lienemann said all adjustments were made on a "merit basis." Some raises will be given employees who began work under the minimum now set for the job. Other long-time employees are being adjusted to the maximum wage for their jobs.

Lienemann said the salary range for each job is based roughly on a seven-year period between the minimum and maximum but emphasized this was used "only as a guide."

Deserving Quicker

"Deserving employees can be advanced much quicker if merit is shown," he explained.

The new salary schedule with job classification and wage range: Office secretary or clerk: women, $180-$240; men, $190-$250; executive secretary or clerk: women, $200-$275; men, $225-$300.

Deputy (non-professional): Women and men, $50 to $425; second deputy, $325-$425.

Chief deputy (professional): $375-$500.

Appointed department head: women, $275-$400; men, $300-$445.

Sheriff's Department: chief deputy, $300-$450; day patrolmen, $275-$330; tax deputy, $265-$320; night patrolmen, $265-$305; jailers, $265-$290.

It doesn't cost a cent to Take a Ford Test Drive... and you may save hundreds!

Would you trade 20 minutes of your time for a saving of hundreds?

Why put off the fun of a Ford Test Drive for a single day? As you know, it puts you under absolutely no obligation. And it may save you literally hundreds of dollars—we'll get to that a little further on.

By a Test Drive we mean more than a once-around-the-block "spin."

We want you to test the power that rocketed Ford to a 500-mile stock car record at Indianapolis... the GO that won the grand prize at NASCAR's Daytona Championships. We want you to feel how this Ford scat pays off in your kind of driving: in traffic, passing on the highway, getting going at traffic lights. We'll put either a Ford Six or a mighty V-8 with up to 225 h.p. at your disposal.

We want you to drive and listen—drive and feel.

That fine-car quiet results from sound insulation under the hood, under the roof, in door and body panels—the most insulation in any car at anywhere near Ford's low price.

Some other things that contribute to that smooth, silent, luxury-car ride are things which Ford's leading competitor certainly can't boast: Ball-joint suspension with wide base control arms for better steering, more stabilized wheel alignment... shock absorbers that are mounted to the frame rather than the body.

"Sure," you'll say as you drive along the road. "Feels pretty good—but after all, this car is new."

Well sir, when you come in from your drive we'll show you why Ford will stay like new for a long, long time.

We'll show you how Ford has five cross-members (including a "K" member) in its frame. Ford's leading competitor only has two. We'll show you the deep-block Y-like engine design which enables Ford engines to take it.

Another important factor is the way Fords are consistently styled for the years ahead. And if there ever was a Ford built to stay in style it's this 1956 job. For America's favorite dream car—the Ford Thunderbird—was its styling inspiration.

Then, there's this matter of safety. Ford offers you the extra protection of its exclusive Lifeguard Design. Time and again folks have told us how this family of safety features has prevented serious injury in accidents.

Now—what you've been waiting for. How can you save hundreds of dollars by taking a Ford Test Drive? Simply by proving to yourself that there really is a fine car in the low-price field.

You see, the reason a Ford does not cost hundreds of dollars more than it does, is Ford's huge production and the huge volume which we Ford Dealers sell.

There are many cases where "medium-priced" cars claim to be priced within a few hundred dollars of Ford. Remember, however, these prices are usually arrived at by comparing their lowest-priced models—stripped—with Ford's most expensive models that include all of the comforts of driving.

But enough of this talk. Come in. And you do the driving and the talking. Bring the family, too.

NOW! A FORD with AIR CONDITIONING costs less than many medium-priced cars without it. TRY ONE TODAY!

Garden Glances With The Moon

Lend a hand to one another
In the daily toil of life;
When we meet a weaker brother,
Let us help him in the strife.

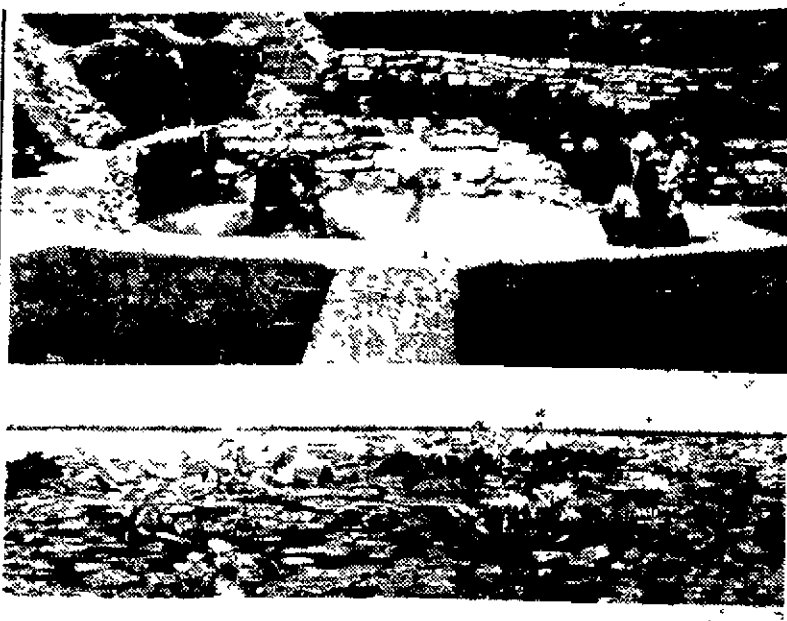

There is none so rich but may
In his turn be forced to borrow,
And the poor man's lot today
May become our own tomorrow.

Lend a hand to one another,
When malicious tongues have thrown
Dark suspicion on your brother,
Be not prompt to cast a stone.

There is none so good but may
Run adrift in shame and sorrow;
And the good man of today
May become the bad tomorrow.

Lend a hand to one another
In the race for honor's crown,
Should it fall upon your brother,
Let not envy tear it down.

Lend a hand to all, we pray,
In their sunshine or their sorrow,
And the prize they've won today
May become our own tomorrow.

Water lilies in the sunken garden at 27th and D Streets . . .

so you will have flower and seed pods in next summer's garden.

Today the waxing moon is in the flexed, fiery and very barren sign, Sagittarius Thursday morning at 8 48 it will enter the movable, dry earthy and semi-fruitful sign, Capricorn Saturday night at 9 36 it will enter the fixed, airy and barren sign, Aquarius And next Tuesday morning at 9 45 it will enter the flexed, watery and fruitful sign, Pisces. This high time you sowed grass seed in those bare spots about your lawn. Or, if you have to make a new lawn, then be about it. The August rains have come and the soil is ready for the new seeds.

Clusters of lilac-pink lily-like blossoms of Lycoris squamigera appeared in our garden last week as if by magic. The strap-like leaves of L. squamigera appear in May and grow lustily over a period of weeks, then mature and like "the old soldier," fade away. Along in August, solid scapes shoot up with umbels of blossoms almost overnight, which gives this member of the Amaryllidaceae family the common and quite appropriate name, "Magic Lily." The individual blossoms, although looking very fragile, do make perfectly lovely corsages and hold up amazingly for an evening's wear. The bulbs of L. squamigera should be planted in the autumn and left to grow, bloom and increase in number year after year. Perhaps you call them hardy amaryllis, which would not be incorrect, not at all.

Have you seen the water lilies in the sunken garden at 27th and D Streets this summer? Better go by and take a look. Our picture today was taken the other morning when children were enjoying all the beauty and fascinations found in the garden. There must be goldfish in the pool because the four children were oblivious to our presence and picture shooting of water lilies.

Mrs. Rose Arrigo Dies At Age 68

Mrs. Rose Arrigo, 68, of 3409 So. 54th died Monday.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Teresa's Church, the Msgr. M. M. Kaczmarek officiating.

The rosary will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Hodgman-Spaulin chapel.

Born in Italy, Mrs. Arrigo had lived in Lincoln for 50 years.

She was a member of St. Teresa's Catholic Church.

She is survived by two sons, Sam and Joe, both of Lincoln; a daughter, Mrs. Rose Amodeo of Lincoln; a sister, Mrs. James Lococo of Lincoln, and four grandchildren.

Opening Set For Northside Lincoln Dump

The city's new public dump north of Havelock is scheduled to open Wednesday or Thursday.

Operations in the new area will be started first in a section of land about one and one-half miles north of U. S. 6 and one-fourth mile east of 48th. Entrance to the dump will be off of 48th.

An ordinance will be introduced to the City Council, probably next Monday, establishing new dumping hours from 6 30 a.m. to 4 p.m. every day except Sunday when the hours will be 6 30 a.m. to 12 noon.

According to Park Superintendent James Ager, this will allow time for dump employees to completely cover the day's collection before a new accumulation is obtained. This, he said, will substantially reduce objectionable odors and blowing papers.

Fencing around the entire area will confine the debris to the dump and also keep out scavengers.

A systematic burning program will also be worked out, Ager said, to assure the least objectionable operation possible.

MEDICATED BEAUTY TREATMENT

Simple as one-two-three—just three steps: Enlarged pores are an open invitation to blemishes. Your first step is DEEP CLEANSER, a creamy liquid that flows deep into the pores and dislodges even the dirt "glued" in by oil—while its exclusive antiseptic R-57 destroys the bacteria that commonly cause surface blemishes.

Step two heals and clears with MEDICATED BEAUTY MASK. Its medications are the same ones prescribed by dermatologists as most effective in healing surface blemishes. "Unmasking" was a momentous thrill for the women tested. As they washed off the mask they actually washed off blackheads and saw a clearer, smoother, younger-looking complexion emerge!

Last is a vitalizing skin bath of "WATER LILY" SKIN LOTION which quickly tightens the pores, leaving a more delicate texture where once the skin was coarse and uneven.

When you see those blackheads wash off like so many dirt specks, you'll know there's nothing for your skin like Helena Rubinstein's complete MEDICATED BEAUTY CARE. 4 weeks supply, just 3.95 plus tax.

Bridal showers are always fun, but when the guest of honor, her business and the party guests are all former high school classmates, the gathering becomes doubly memorable. Such was the occasion last Thursday evening when Miss Jackie McClure was honored at a linen shower held at the home of Miss Jo Wenzl. Following an informal evening, during which a scrapbook was made for the honoree by the 15 guests, a dessert supper was served.

The bride-to-be and her hostesses include (from the left) Miss Cheryl Yates, Miss McClure, Miss June Hammers and Miss Jo Wenzl.

Miss McClure's marriage to Ronald E. Hanna will take place Wednesday evening at the First Christian Church.

THIS MORNING we were greeted by a variety of items in the social news about town. We know of houseguests, travelers, home-comers and an addition to the bassinet circle. So, not to waste any more precious space, we will begin with the news that Mrs. A. H. Kurtz and her niece, Miss Lynn Scott of Beatrice, have returned to Lincoln, arriving last Thursday from Cass Lake, Minn., where they have been vacationing for three weeks.

AND a homecomer on Monday evening was Mrs. Kay Halligan who has been spending the summer as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Childs (Nancy Halligan), at Weston, Mass. Mrs. Halligan was accompanied to Lincoln by her granddaughter, Miss Kathy Childs, who will be her houseguest for several weeks.

WHILE on the subject of homecoming vacationers, we should tell you that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kosman and their young son, Steve, returned home Sunday evening from the North Shore Beach Resort at Hackensack, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Kosman and their son spent last week at the resort sharing their vacation activities with Dr. and Mrs. Donald Purvis and their three children, Lynn, Rickie and C. Leigh, who will return to Lincoln on Tuesday.

WE ALSO know that Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walt, Jr., and their daughters, Judy and Leslie, are spending some very busy weeks vacationing at their summer home at Pelican Lake, Minn. Mrs. Walt and her daughters have spent most of the summer in Minnesota, where they were joined recently by Mr. Walt, and the foursome plans to return home at the end of August.

THEN, we learned of several houseguests in Lincoln. For instance, we know that James Henkle arrived in Lincoln several days ago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Henkle. Mr. Henkle will be here until the end of the week when he will return to Norman, Okla., where he is a member of the faculty of the University of Oklahoma.

ANOTHER guest in town is Allen Anderson, who arrived last Saturday in Omaha where he was met by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Anderson. Mr. Anderson will be here only until the end of the week when he will return to Newport, Me., where he is stationed with the Navy.

BUT, to return to our list of home-comers, we have news of Mrs. O. V. Calhoun, her daughter, Miss Mary Lou Calhoun, and son, David Calhoun, who will be returning to Lincoln at the end of August after spending the summer months in Europe. En route home, the travelers will stop at Cleveland, O., for a short visit with Mrs. Calhoun's son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Walt Weaver, and their very young son.

MENTION of the young set reminds us to announce the arrival of young Vance Traphagen Yates who was born on Monday, Aug. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Yates, Jr., of Wilmette, Ill. Mrs. Yates, who is the former Jane Traphagen, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Traphagen, and the baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Yates of Bethel, Conn.

Next week, Mrs. Traphagen will leave for Wilmette for a get-acquainted visit with her grandson.

Members of the Cornhusker Chapter of the National Secretaries Association held a summer get-together Monday evening when the group met for a picnic supper and evening of fun and swimming at the National Bank of Commerce cabin at South Bend.

The trip to the cabin was made by bus and pictured as they were

Crory; Thelma Kingston; Mrs. Steve Wilson; Mary Howe, and Betty Howe. Not identified are the two ladies far back in the picture.

Officers of the club who are not in the picture include Mrs. Evelyn Whiting, vice president; Maryann Horky, treasurer, and Mrs. Kathleen Evans and Mrs. Frances Tracy, directors.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

It's always a pleasure to chat with our friends in the Eastbridge area, however, we still have found no clue to the secret of their constant, untiring energy. We keep thinking that surely the social activity will slow down each week. But with each week, we find that the news is endless. So, we had better begin to tell you about vacationers, houseguests, parties and newcomers.

First of all, we learned that Mrs. Ivan Rezny will be leaving for Norfolk, Va., on Wednesday, Aug. 22, to meet her husband, Lt. Rezny, who will be returning from a summer, Naval midshipman cruise. From Norfolk, Lt. and Mrs. Rezny will go to Washington, D. C., and Long Island, N. Y., to visit friends, and on to Philadelphia to spend several days as the guests of Mrs. Rezny's mother, Mrs. Thomas Minnick. From Philadelphia, the Rezny's will return home accompanied by their sons, Stoney and Laury, who have been spending the summer months at Philadelphia with their grandmother.

While Lt. and Mrs. Rezny are away, their two young daughters will be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Duke in Eastbridge.

Continuing with our list of vacationers, we know that last week end Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gray left for St. Louis, Mo. While there, they will visit with friends and members of their family for the next ten days.

We also learned that Thomas A. McCalla, Jr., left Saturday, Aug. 4, for White Sands, N.M. An August graduate of the University of Nebraska, Mr. McCalla will be associated with the government's guided missile program.

More news of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCalla concerns another son, Robert McCalla, who is spending the summer at Hot Sulphur Springs, Colo., where he is working with the U.S. Forestry Service. Mr. McCalla will return to Lincoln in September in time to resume his studies at the University of Nebraska.

And what Suburbia column would be complete without the usual list of houseguests? This coming week end, Mr. and Mrs. Allen "Bo" Wilson are expecting as their guests Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farris Harland of Canton, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Harland will arrive in Lincoln on Friday to remain until Monday as the guests of their son-in-law and daughter.

When Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kenney returned home to Lincoln recently after visiting friends in Chicago, Mrs. Kenney's sister, Mrs. Charles Costello of Chicago, accompanied them here for a ten-day visit.

Last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Costello was honored at an informal coffee for which Mrs. Woodrow Livengood was hostess at her home. The thirteen guests were Eastbridge neighbors of Mrs. Livengood and Mrs. Kenney.

Speaking of courtesies for houseguests reminds us that Mrs. L. D. Cole entertained at a luncheon at her home last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Mason Butcher of Kennington, Ill., who is in Lincoln visiting friends and members of her family. The luncheon guests, Mrs. Albert H. Todd, Mrs. A. E. Harrington and Mrs. Kenneth Kent, are all Gamma Phi Beta sorority sisters of Mrs. Butcher, who is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska.

The new address of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hemke is 829 Mulder Drive. The Hemkes are completely settled into their new home, but Eastbridge is not new to Mr. and Mrs. Hemke for they formerly had been residing at 727 Eastridge Drive.

There is a newcomer to the Hemke family, however. Young Miss Karen Ann Hemke was born on Thursday, Aug. 9, at Lincoln General Hospital and will accompany her mother to the new home this week. Mrs. Hemke is the former Sheila Overgaard and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Overgaard.

Were Brides At Candlelight Weddings

MRS. DWIGHT L. LUBKEN

In the presence of the members of the immediate families, the marriage of Miss Theba Blodgett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Blodgett, and Dwight L. Lubken was solemnized Friday evening, Aug. 10, at Trinity Methodist Church. Lighted white candles and spreading arrangements of gladioli in pastel tones decorated the chancel for the 8 o'clock service, which was solemnized by the Rev. S. B. Thomas, and Miss Sally Lieurance, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied the vocal soloist, Paul Sieck.

Miss Donna Blodgett was her sister's maid of honor and wore a full-skirted frock of pale yellow embroidered organza fashioned in the ballerina mode. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Sandra Johnston attended her aunt as flower girl, and lighting the candles was Miss Cleone Beed of Chambers.

Serving as best man was Norman Lubken, and the ushers were Doyle Blodgett and Leslie Johnston.

The bride selected for her wedding a waltz-length gown of white lace and tulle. Tiny pearls and sequins patterned the lace of the Empire bodice, which was designed with a high, turned-down collar and brief sleeves, and beneath the fitted midriff, the tulle skirt was shirred into fullness. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a jeweled tiara, and she carried a white Bible marked with a single white orchid.

Following a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Colorado.

Mr. Lubken, who is a student at the University of Nebraska, and his bride will make their home at 800 So. 16th.

MRS. KENNETH D. KESSINGER

Clusters of lighted white candles appointed the chancel of St. John's Lutheran Church at Waco Sunday evening, Aug. 12, for the marriage of Miss Deloris M. Dinkelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto W. Dinkelman of Waco, to Kenneth D. Kessinger, son of Mrs. Clarence Stiles of Lincoln. The service was solemnized by the Rev. George Wienick in the presence of 150 guests, and Roy Petersen, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied the vocal soloist, Miss Beverly Naber.

Wearing similar frocks in pastel summer shades were Mrs. Verlin Bruns, Lincoln, as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaid, Mrs. Harold Wiemer of Waco. Starlynn Wiese and Wayne Dinkelman lighted the candles for the 7 o'clock wedding, and the ringbearer was Dennis Kessinger.

Don Martin of Lincoln served Mr. Kessinger as best man, and seating the guests were Reuben Naber, Waco; Raymond Wiese, Utica; and Leonard Martin of Lincoln.

The bride appeared in a gown of white lace and tulle. Petal points of the lace traced with iridescent sequins framed the rounded neckline of the snug lace bodice, and the brief sleeves were complemented by mitts of the lace. The lace motif was repeated in floral appliques on the extremely full skirt of tulle, which ended in a whisper train, and her veil of imported illusion was held by a cap of shirred tulle dotted with sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses.

Immediately following the service, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kessinger will make their home at 1727 So. 13th in Lincoln.

We Hear That

In Lincoln for a very brief stay last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conklin of Hubbell who were en route home from a vacation trip to Alaska; Banff and Lake Louise, Alberta, Canada; and Glacier National Park, Wyo. They were met in Lincoln by their daughter, Mrs. Robert V. Denney of Fairbury, who accompanied them home for a visit of several days.

Preparations For Prep Grid Practice Underway Today

All boys who will be in the Lincoln Public School's Senior High Schools this fall and plan to go out for football can obtain physical examination blanks at the principal's office at the three Lincoln High Schools, Lincoln High, Northeast High, and Southeast High, starting this morning and every day thereafter from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. except Saturday.

Boys should complete their physical examinations before check-out dates, which are Thursday, August 23; Friday, August 24; Saturday morning, August 25; and Monday morning, August 27, 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Southeast boys will check out football equipment starting Friday, August 24, 1956. Equipment managers will check out equipment to interested boys during any practice session thereafter.

The first official practice at each of the schools will be held on Monday morning, August 27th, at 10:00 a.m. Boys who are presently employed can check out football equipment on Monday morning, August 27. All boys should bring their completed physical examination records and signed parent consent blank with them when they check out equipment.

Sophomore boys who wish to try out for the Varsity or Reserve squads should report for practice on August 27th. All other sophomores interested in participating with the Sophomore Team will report for practice on Monday, September 10. These boys should complete their Physical Examinations and have their parent consent blanks signed by September 10.

All ninth grade boys in the Lincoln Public Schools who wish to go out for Intramural football will receive necessary instructions as to when their program starts on the opening day of school which is September 10.

Shatters Swim Record
MILES CITY MONT. (AP)—Bob McMahon, Seattle, broke the national outdoor men's 100-meter breast stroke swimming record in 1 minute, 22.4 seconds at the Montana AAU Swimming Tournament Monday.

The other national title decided during the two-day meet was the junior women's outdoor 200-meter backstroke, won by Ann Feitmeier, Los Angeles, in 3:01.8.

pion, "but I'm certain I'm going to fight for him in September on the 24th or 25th. I spoke to Eaton on the telephone later Monday and we've got most everything straightened out."

"I'm finished with the IBC and Jim Norris," said Robinson after driving down from his Greenwood Lake camp. "They don't want to give me a guarantee for theater-television so I'm going to conclude arrangements this week for a title defense against Fullmer for either Cal Eaton in Los Angeles or Bill Kyne in San Francisco."

"Eaton had offered me $125,000, of which $15,000 was for training expenses, plus $60,000 for television. Kyne is ready with a similar offer," said Robinson.

Asked whether he was serious about his differences with Norris, an old pal, Robinson replied heatedly:

"I've only got one title to put on the line and I'm going to get all I can. If I lose the title, I've got nothing else. Norris wants everything for himself. I can get more on the Coast and I'm going there."

"The hitch with Norris is over theater-television," Ray added. "We were all set on the percentages, 47½ for me and 12½ for Fullmer. I was supposed to get 60 per cent of the theater-TV but I wanted a flat guarantee of $100,000 for that which would get me $60,000. Norris wouldn't give me that. I only got $12,000 from theater-TV for my fight with Joey Maxim."

Robinson admitted that he had an exclusive contract with the IBC but said he would go ahead anyway, adding the contract "is illegal and won't stand up in court."

Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC, agreed the club had an exclusive with Robinson but said "Whether he will exercise it or not, I can't say until I talk it over with Norris who is out of town."

Markson, meanwhile, indicated Norris had just about given up hopes of making a deal for the Yankee Stadium outdoor show, which had been ticketed tentatively for Sept. 18.

"We have lost a great deal of interest in the fight because of the terms Robinson privately settled with Marv Jensen (Fullmer's manager). They worked out the 47½-12½ deal with Robinson to get both fighters' shares (60 per cent) of the theater-TV. We feel Fullmer is entitled to the challenger's regular share of 20 per cent of everything, instead of just 12½ per cent of the gate."

At West Jordan, Utah, Jensen said he reluctantly agreed to the 12½ per cent to get Fullmer his crack at the title.

CARDS' MOON MAKING BID FOR BAT CROWN

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
NEW YORK (AP) — Wally Moon, St. Louis' speedy outfielder, is the latest Cardinal player to make a bid for National League batting honors.

Moon gained 11 points during the week to boost his average to .327 and challenge Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, who leads the league with .340. Figures include games through Sunday.

The parade of St. Louis batting title aspirants started when Rip Repulski grabbed the lead early in the season, only to injure his hand and subsequently relinquish his position.

Ken Boyer was the next Redbird to move into the thick of contention, but he, too, went into a tailspin after setting the pace. Six-time champion Stan Musial overcame a slow start and later forged to the front.

Bailey Was Leader
After Musial lost ground, Cincinnati's Ed Bailey took over the top spot before Aaron streaked ahead on July 24.

Moon, in his third season with the Cards, collected 15 hits in 34 trips last week in advancing from fifth place. The 28-year-old southpaw swinger hit .304 in his rookie campaign and dropped to .285 last year.

While Moon was having a successful week, Aaron slipped 4 points with 11-for-37. Musial, meanwhile, suffered an 8-point decline and fell from second to third at .317. Stan The Man went 9-for-38.

Red Schoendienst of the New York Giants, a former Cardinal, ranks fourth at .315, 1 point ahead of Bailey, in fifth, with .314. Schoendienst, third a week ago, lost 4 points, while Bailey boosted his average 6 points in climbing from eighth.

Mantle Comfortably Ahead
The New York Yankees' Mickey Mantle continues to hold a comfortable advantage in the American League batting race. Mantle leads the loop with a .371 average, followed by Boston's

Baseball Pension Committee Meets

Player's Pensions Reported Doubled

NEW YORK (AP) — The Major League Pension Committee Monday put the finishing touches on a new schedule of benefits to be submitted for approval by the 16 player representatives next Monday in Cincinnati.

The new plan sets up increased benefits resulting from the new five-year, 16½-million-dollar radio and TV contract for the World Series and All-Star game.

J. Norman Lewis, attorney for the players, declined to discuss the new pension plan, but it was learned it calls for a figure double that now received by the players.

That would give five-year men $100 a month at the age of 50 and 10-year men a $200 monthly pension at the same age.

The new setup reportedly also provides full service credit for players—with benefits figured by the day instead of by the year. Thus a player with 5½ seasons of service will receive $55 a month rather than the $50, or five-year, pension paid under the present plan.

The Pension Committee is comprised of player representatives Bob Feller, Cleveland, and Robin Roberts, Philadelphia; and other representatives Joe Cronin, Boston, and John Galbreath, Pittsburgh.

McCook Pulls Triple Play; Tips Kearney

KEARNEY (AP) — McCook pulled a triple play in the first inning Monday night while beating Kearney, 9-5, in a Nebraska State League game.

There were men on first and third when J. Ward hit to the mound. Jerry Moore was then caught and tagged out between third and home and Ward, turning to second was trapped off first and tagged. The third out followed as Fay Dunbar was caught between second and third.

Dick Rump homered for Kearney and Nick Vancro and Dick Centi each knocked in two runs for McCook.

Lexington Tips Superior, 4-0
SUPERIOR (AP)—Harry Fenn set Superior down with one hit, a single in the second inning by Norb Krings, as Nebraska State League leader Lexington whipped Superior, 4-0.

The league leaders were negotiating for a title fight with Europe's toughest challenger, burly Ingemar Johansson of Sweden.

If Cavicchi wins that one—and the experts are putting a lot of emphasis on that "if"—the Italian might show up again somewhere near the bottom of Ring Magazine's world ratings on heavyweights.

He was in 10th place on the list once, after he first beat Neuhaus, but he dropped out of sight soon afterward on the basis of his later showings, and still isn't listed.

Holdrege Shellacks Hastings, 17-1
HOLDREGE (AP) — Sal Laspina unloaded two home runs, one with the bases loaded and the other a solo, during a nine-run seventh inning Monday as Holdrege walloped Hastings in a Nebraska State League game, 17-1.

It was Laspina's third bases-loaded homer and his seventh four-bagger of the year.

Holdrege's 13-1 slugfest from Grand Island in the Nebraska State League Monday night as each team got 10 hits. LeRoy Scercy got a homer for the losers in the ninth.

Five runs in the second and five in the sixth gave North Platte the battle although Grand Island turned in a five-run inning in the bottom of the first.

North Platte Nudges Grand Island, 13-11
GRAND ISLAND (AP)—North Platte grabbed a 13-11 slugfest from Grand Island in the Nebraska State League Monday night as each team got 10 hits. LeRoy Scercy got a homer for the losers in the ninth.

Russia Invites U.S. Track Team To Compete In Lenin Stadium In '57

By STERLING SLAPPEY
M O S C O W (AP) — Russia invited the United States Monday to send a full track and field team on an all-expenses-paid trip here next July for a head-on clash with Soviet athletes.

Leonid Khomenkov, chief of the Soviet Sports Committee on Athletics, said that "Americans can send as many as they like." He said that the invitation, extended through Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer, of the Amateur Athletic Union, also has a provision for 1958 if the United States is unable to send a squad next summer.

Soviet Olympic Coach Gabriel Korobkov said Russia would like to have a home-and-home series like they have with Britain.

Lenin Stadium Available
Korobkov offered the use of the new Lenin Stadium, where the Soviet is currently holding Spartakiad, her version of the Olympic trials. The Russians stated they were willing to pay all expenses to fly a team to Moscow and to house them during the competition.

The Russian coach said the July date would fit in ideally with the end of the U. S. track season.

In New York Ferris said he had not received an invitation from the Russians since last year but he thought it would be possible to send a team to Moscow in 1957.

"I think our Track and Field Committee and Finance Committee would be happy to receive such an invitation," Ferris said. "They wanted us to send a team over this summer, but our reply was that we were too busy raising funds to send the Olympic team to Melbourne to finance such a trip. In addition, the Olympic Committee ruled that no Olympians could go overseas this summer."

Refused Fingerprinting
"I don't know about a return trip. After our weight lifters went over there, the Russians were supposed to send a team here but they didn't do it because they wouldn't submit to fingerprinting."

In discussing a return trip to the United States, Korobkov said "Americans could pick any city they like to entertain us in our return visit such as New York, Chicago, San Francisco or Los Angeles."

A U. S. trip to Russia on this basis might be hampered by the American law requiring fingerprinting before granting visas. The Russian government has continually balked at this procedure, and declined invitations because of this.

Missed Coaches' Meeting
Last spring, Korobkov said he did not travel to California for a meeting of track and field coaches, including numerous overseas observers, because of the law.

The Russians did not say whether the trip to Moscow hinged on a return invitation to the United States, but many Soviet invites invariably call for a return.

Khomenkov said that this was the first attempt to get a U. S. team to compete in Russia. He said he tried to get negotiations underway a year ago for an American team to visit Moscow July 5 and 6 of this year, but he was unsuccessful.

Know Your GOLF

A putting fashion which is quite popular at the present time is the one illustrated in today's sketch. Notice that the left hand and forearm are turned radically to the left—so much that when the left hand is opened at its palm is almost parallel to the line of the putt. The right hand grip for this style is more or less in the common manner—with the first two fingers and the thumb. This putting style practically eliminates left wrist action and compels one to swing the putter in a pendulum action from the shoulders. Certain players are finding this style effective in tournament golf. Veterans will recognize it as a modification of the old Diegel method.

'Ol Satch' Rolls On And On; Spins One-Hit Victory
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ageless Satchel Paige flouted Father Time Monday night by pitching a 4-0 one-hitter for Miami over Rochester in the seven-inning opener of an International League double-header.

Paige got a standing ovation from Miami fans after forcing the last Rochester batter to ground out with two men on base.

The win was Paige's 10th against three losses and brought his earned run average to 1.50.

The gangling, fifty-five Negro took plenty of time between his change-up pitches. His Marlin mates gave him a solid working margin with three runs they scored in the first inning.

Bout Planned For Spieser, Stretz
DETROIT (AP) — Promoter Nick Londez said Monday he is negotiating for a Sept. 21 lightweight-weight bout in Detroit between Chuck Spieser and Germany's Hans Stretz.

Londez said Spieser, of Detroit, currently the fourth-ranked challenger, has agreed to the bout. He said he is awaiting an answer from Stretz, the No. 3 ranked lightweight.

Stretz has 39 knockouts and 25 decisions in 79 pro fights. He has lost seven, six by knockouts, and has eight draws.

fourth paved the way for the Sky Sox. Junior Griffith's single with Don Prohovich on second drove in what proved to be the winning run in the bottom of the fifth.

Frank Murray collected half of Amarillo's hits and homered in the first to put the Gold Sox into one of their two brief leads of the game. It was his 11th homer of the year.

In the fourth, Amarillo put together a single by Art Cuiti, an error and an infield out to score their final tally and go ahead, 2-1.

Ramos wound up with a flourish in the Amarillo ninth, when he struck out Catcher Cuno Barragan with two out and Chuck Stevens on third, representing the potential tying run. Stevens had walked and advanced on a sacrifice and an infield out.

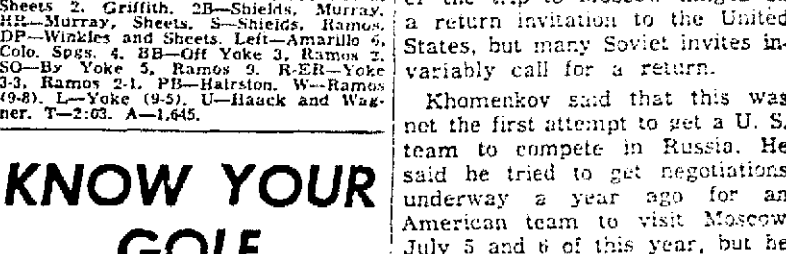

Reliever Snuffs Hawk Threat; Pueblo Wins
PUEBLO (AP)—Relief Pitcher Jim Mertlik struck out pinch batter Marshall Bridges with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to snuff out a Topeka threat and preserve an 8-5 Pueblo Western League victory Monday night.

The Pueblo victory in the series wind-up left the teams with a split in the four-game series.

Holdrege Shellacks Hastings, 17-1
HOLDREGE (AP) — Sal Laspina unloaded two home runs, one with the bases loaded and the other a solo, during a nine-run seventh inning Monday as Holdrege walloped Hastings in a Nebraska State League game, 17-1.

It was Laspina's third bases-loaded homer and his seventh four-bagger of the year.

Holdrege's 13-1 slugfest from Grand Island in the Nebraska State League Monday night as each team got 10 hits. LeRoy Scercy got a homer for the losers in the ninth.

Five runs in the second and five in the sixth gave North Platte the battle although Grand Island turned in a five-run inning in the bottom of the first.

Murder Charge Filed Against Omahan

Officials Delay Arraignment

WAHOO, Neb. (AP) — A first-degree murder charge was filed Monday against Abe Marion Jr., 23, Omaha, in connection with the fatal shooting of a woman at Cedar Bluffs Lake, four miles north of Cedar Bluffs, Neb.

Saunder County Sheriff Joe Davis said the charge was filed against Marion after the man admitted to a signed statement he shot Mary Ann Ogesby, 44, Omaha, three times during an argument Sunday.

The sheriff quoted Marion as saying he and the woman had been arguing and she kicked and scratched him. Marion, a Negro, told Davis he went to his nearby car, got a .38 caliber pistol and shot her three times in the stomach.

Marion's face was badly scratched, Davis said. The sheriff quoted the Omahan as saying he had been going with the Ogesby woman for about four years.

James Lindsay, Omaha Negro, witnessed the shooting, and with a companion had tried to talk Marion out of shooting the woman, Davis said.

Marion was to have been arraigned on the charge Monday, but Davis said the man's attorney asked for continuance to allow him to talk to Marion.

York Election Trial Delayed

YORK, Neb. (AP) — The trial of a suit challenging the validity of a York school bond election was delayed until Wednesday due to the death of a relative of Judge H. Emerson Kokjer who will preside.

The trial, scheduled to start Monday, involves $75,000 in bonds voted May 16.

Raymond D. Haggard has charged irregularities in the election, including illegal voters and non-conformity with election laws by the school board when it opened and counted the mail vote the night of the election.

The mail vote gave 13 ballots for the bond issue and six against — sufficient to give the proposal the required 55 per cent majority by the margin of three votes. The tally, without mail votes, was 1,570 for and 1,299 against.

Ainsworth Meet Called To Help Save 2 Omaha-Chadron Trains

O'NEILL, Neb. (AP) — Cal Stewart of O'Neill, president of the "Save the Trains Assn.," said Monday a caucus taken among officers and directors showed they were unanimous in a decision to oppose a move of the Chicago and North Western Railroad to drop trains 13 and 14 between Omaha and Chadron.

The railroad had said it would file an application with the State Railway Commission Aug. 15 for permission to drop the trains.

M. H. Snider of Clearwater, special representative of the association, called a meeting at Ainsworth next Monday night to discuss the group's plans.

Stewart said a statement by C. J. Fitzpatrick, North Western president, "didn't tell the whole story."

Fitzpatrick said "our current studies reveal an actual out-of-pocket loss of $204,717 for a year's period ending last June 30."

Stewart said "at important points on the line passenger revenue during the experimental period increased substantially, and the association did succeed in arresting what had been an alarming decline in express shipments."

He added "the fact remains that the mail situation deteriorated steadily even though the postoffice department had promised an increase. We concede it is impossible for us to stop the mail revenue loss, which is offsetting our gains."

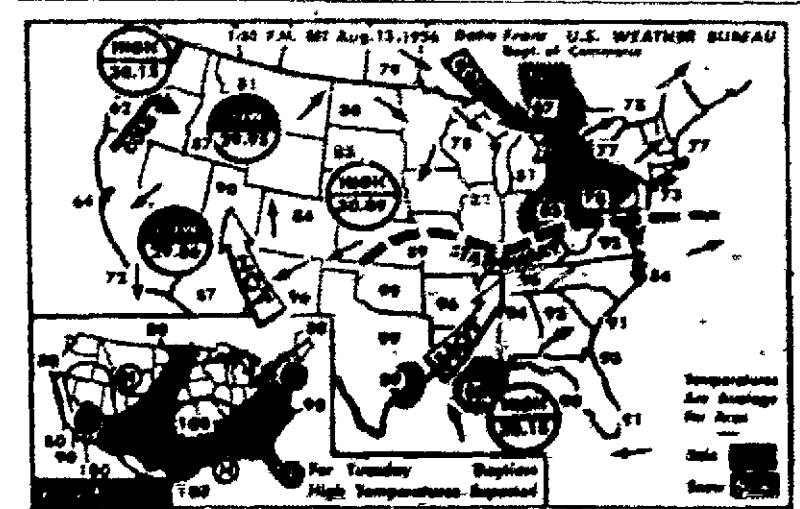

TV Promised Panhandle Area

ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP) — A joint announcement by two Panhandle radio stations Monday promised television for western Nebraska as a definite prospect.

Knowland Predicts It'll Be Nixon Again In No. 2 Spot

... After Half-Hour Talk With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) emerged from a 30-minute talk with President Eisenhower Monday and predicted Vice President Nixon will again win the No. 2 spot on the Republican ticket this fall.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said he talked politics, legislation and foreign affairs with the President. But he wouldn't say whether he and Eisenhower had specifically discussed the vice presidential situation.

While saying he was not in a position to go into detail on his talk with Eisenhower, Knowland made this forecast:

"I think the ticket will be the same in 1960 as it was in 1952."

Predicts Re-Election

Knowland also predicted Eisenhower and Nixon will be re-elected in November by a substantial majority.

Eisenhower has said Nixon is acceptable to him as a GOP vice presidential candidate — but he has not closed the door on other candidates.

The President has given Harold E. Stassen, his disarmament adviser, a month's leave to work for the nomination of Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts.

Lincoln Auxiliary Post Membership Passes 600 Mark

Membership in Lincoln's American Legion Auxiliary Unit 3 has surpassed the 1956 quota by totaling over 600, it was announced by Mrs. Al Sweetman.

Special badges for membership work, "6 for '56 badges," were presented to Mrs. Lauretta Barnard, Mrs. Ed Munson, Mrs. Charles Sherman, Mrs. Ray Elam, Mrs. H. R. Ball and Mrs. Dewey Coats.

Aid amounting to $18,984 was received by 6,085 children of veterans during the past year, Mrs. R. D. Stage, state child welfare chairman reported.

Other Projects

Other service projects carried on included those helping the retarded children's program; the state homes at Beatrice, White Hall, and Geneva, numerous scholarships, and special assistance to 130 post-war orphans.

The rehabilitation program, under the direction of Mrs. Gene McGlasson, included volunteer service at the three Nebraska veterans hospitals. Chairmen for these groups were Mrs. Marguerite Bosch, Omaha; Mrs. W. R. Cochran, Grand Island; Mrs. Robert C. Russell, Lincoln, and Mrs. Anton Stransky, for the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Grand Island.

6,360 Hours Service

Service at the Lincoln Veterans Hospital totalling 6,360 hours was given by 65 volunteers from the Lincoln unit, and included the showing of movies, sewing, acting as hostesses, serving refreshments, writing letters and giving a rose to each patient upon admission.

For its "outstanding work in child welfare," the Lincoln unit was given a $5 award.

Mrs. Mary Florell has been appointed memorial chairman of the Lincoln unit.

Denver Man's Probation Revoked

The two-year probation of William R. Hawver, 40, of Denver, Colo., has been revoked by the Lancaster District Court in connection with a fraudulent check charge.

In his guilty plea, Hawver admitted probation violation by failure to report to the adult probation officer, failure to make restitution, and use of alcoholic beverage.

Hawver had been placed on probation May 20, 1953, on a charge of issuing a $10 no-account check in Lincoln.

Judge John L. Polk deferred sentencing pending a pre-sentence investigation for the court.

Woman Dies From Injuries

COZAD, Neb. (AP) — Mrs. Nellie Grubham, 68, of Hershey, died Monday in a Cozad hospital of injuries suffered in a two-car accident on Highway 30 near here last Wednesday.

Henry Verschoor, Hershey, who was riding in the same car, remained hospitalized with less serious injuries.

Robert Pollat, who was in the other car, was released from the hospital last week end.

Mrs. Grubham's death brings the Nebraska traffic toll for the year to 172.

Extended Forecast

Temperatures through Saturday will range from 2 to 3 degrees above seasonal normal in Nebraska to 4 to 5 degrees above in Kansas.

The normal maximum is 88 in Nebraska, 92 in Kansas, with normal minimums 58 west, 62 east Nebraska, and 62 west, 68 east Kansas.

Only minor day-to-day temperature changes expected.

Rainfall will average 1/4 inch in western Nebraska and 10 to 15 inch in southeastern Nebraska and Kansas, occurring as scattered showers and thunderstorms throughout the period.

STANTON DELAPLANE

POSTCARD

The nicest thing I have discovered about a National Convention is everything is free. A nobody who is not politicking is giving away free samples.

This morning I went over to the Conrad Hilton Hotel to pick up some press credentials.

Michigan Avenue in front of the Hilton looks a little like a carnival anyway. There were mobs of ladies outside, lading out big blue and white "Adlai" outtings. Inside three uniformed bouncers were lining up the free leavers at the elevator. It was long as a movie line on the special Saturday afternoon kids matinee.

Lady handed me a booklet telling how to dial from a public telephone. "Lift receiver, then deposit one dime."

On the third floor, the Harriman hospitality room was giving away free Coca Colas.

Found a stairway and went to the fourth floor where somebody gave away free orange juice.

Caught an elevator to the eighth floor where a lady asked me if I was from Arkansas and gave me a map of Chicago with historic events of the week and several blank pages marked "Convention Notes."

Back to the fifth floor where they gave away press credentials. Saw a door marked "CBS Medical Room." Beautiful blonde nurse standing about idly.

"Just roll up your sleeve," she said. She popped a thermometer in my mouth. "We'll just see if you have a little old temperature."

"Madam," I mumbled. "I think you have the wrong patient. I am in the pink of health and just dropped in to cut up a few touches. Why is Columbia Broadcasting so sickly?"

"Don't talk," she said filling a syringe. "Your temperature won't register."

"If that's orange juice," I said. "let me tell you that I am full of Harriman Coca Cola. Adlai Pepsi cola. Happy Chandler 100 juice and Johnson coffee. I couldn't take another drop."

"This is Salk vaccine for polio," she said squirting a little out of the needle. "Just hold still, please."

"I don't have polio. Ouch."

The beautiful nurse withdrew the needle.

"All CBS personnel must have the vaccine. Oh, I forgot to ask

Are you allergic to penicillin?" "I am allergic to almost everything, being a fairly shattered wreck. Also I am not with CBS."

"Oh, dear," said the lady. "Then what are you doing here?" "I just dropped in to pass the time of day. I didn't expect to be stabbed."

"Well, maybe you will be with CBS someday," she said soothingly. "Anyway, it's free."

I went down to the second floor where a lady tried to press a Harriman button on me. She said, "I would like something cold to drink. 'Ah mean nice an' col'."

"A mint julep, ma'am? I all mean one of them Southun col' drinks?"

"I'm afraid all we have is grape drinks or orange crush. Do you think Truman will have any effect on the final outcome?"

Five girls in shorts came by twirling batons. Their mama was with them chanting, "One, two, three, four. Pick it up. One, two, three, four." A bellboy came by carrying a life-size cutout of a donkey.

A lady rode by the hotel. She rode a white horse and wore a bathing suit. She carried a sign reading "Get Tiger Magazine On the stands today."

It was quite a show. And the

Touring Band In Concert At Wilber

Lincoln Star Special

WILBER, Neb. — Seventy-eight high school bandmen from Ottawa, Ill., will present a free concert in Wilber, Tuesday at 8:00 p.m., at The American Legion Memorial Park as a part of their tour through the western part of the United States.

Winner of the Illinois music sweepstakes award in its class and featured last summer before 80,000 at the Chicago Music Festival, the "Pirate Band" appears under the sponsorship of Wilber civic groups.

George R. Willy, assistant superintendent of schools at Ottawa, was formerly principal of Wilber High School. Willy will accompany the band to Wilber.

Willy received his high school education at Hebron and is a graduate of Peru State Teachers College and holds a graduate degree from the University of Nebraska.

His son, Dick, is a member of the touring band.

The nicest thing about it when I go in the cab and counted my money I hadn't spent a dime.

Full of Salk vaccine and orange juice and not a crying dime.

States' Favorite Sons Still Optimistic At Chicago Democratic Convention

CHICAGO (AP)—Here's what state delegates to the Democratic convention are doing:

KENTUCKY—Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler continued public display of optimism, although little evidence his bid for presidential nomination was gathering strength. Chandler's floor manager declined to give out rundown of anticipated votes. Delegation pledged to governor.

TEXAS—Cheered favorite son candidate, Sen. Lyndon Johnson, at first caucus. Some delegates insisted Johnson stay in nominating race beyond first ballot. Johnson declared Texas Democrats will name executive committee that will support convention choice.

MASSACHUSETTS—Two members of delegation, after visiting former President Truman, said Averell Harriman may have "about 13" of state's 40 votes. State's Sen. John F. Kennedy apparently backed by all New England delegates, representing 104 votes, for vice presidential nomination.

VIRGINIA—Decided to caucus at least once a day and hold off committing its 32 votes with view toward strengthening position.

TENNESSEE—Planned first business caucus Tuesday. Barring change in strategy, 32 votes appeared set for Stevenson.

ARIZONA—Delegation chairman Dick Jenkins estimated at least 16 of 32 delegates, each with a half vote, prefer Stevenson to Harriman. Harriman spoke at opening caucus.

ARKANSAS—Approved suggestion by Gov. Orval Faubus to remain uncommitted for time being. Sen. J. W. Fulbright, who supported Stevenson, cautioned against waiting too long.

NEW YORK—Re-elected Carmine DeSapio national committeeman, named Edna F. Kelly, Brooklyn, as committeewoman. Harriman reportedly held on to 91½ of 98 votes.

MISSISSIPPI—Regular Democratic delegation, headed by Gov. J. P. Coleman, approved for seating by convention Credentials Committee. Group had been challenged by Dr. Charles G. Hamilton, Aberdeen.

SOUTH CAROLINA—Convention Credentials Committee voted to seat regular Democratic delegation over protest of group headed by John H. McCray, representing Progressive Democratic party of South Carolina.

NEBRASKA—Eleven of 12 delegates for Stevenson.

GEORGIA—Under unit rule, 32 votes likely for Stevenson unless strong civil rights platform plank causes upheaval. Gov. Marvin Griffin stayed noncommittal but gave no sign of favoring anyone other than Stevenson.

KANSAS—National Committeeman Kenneth Anderson said nine of 16 votes are "solid" for Stevenson. Harriman rooters disagreed. Unit rule applies.

MARYLAND—Stevenson reportedly losing some strength as pro-Harriman delegates intensified efforts to swing state's 18 votes, which will be cast as majority decides.

PENNSYLVANIA—National Committeeman David Lawrence claimed three delegates previously for Harriman switched to Stevenson and said Stevenson "certain" to get 65 of state's 74 votes. Speaker H. G. Andrews of Pennsylvania House contended Harriman should have 18 votes on first ballot.

MICHIGAN—Gov. C. Mennen Williams visited by Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Stevenson supporter and a vice presidential possibility. Williams and union leader Walter Reuther showed up at labor reception for Stevenson. Reuther came out formally for Stevenson.

MISSOURI—Backers of Sen. Stuart Symington, state's favorite son candidate, said support for their man trickling in from other states. Senator called on Arkansas and Kansas delegations.

OHIO—Move by Mayor Frank Kryzan of Youngstown to release delegates from first ballot support of Gov. Frank Lausche fizzled. Lausche, favorite son candidate, said reports he would voluntarily release delegates were untrue. Four of the 54 said they would vote for Stevenson, remainder pledged to Lausche.

WASHINGTON—Uneasy truce reigned between Stevenson and Harriman factions, with Stevenson forces claiming 20 of Washington's 26 votes. Compromise gave pro-Harriman group one vote by assignment of alternates favorable to the New Yorker to replace absent pro-Stevenson delegates. In return, Stevenson faction won delegation cochairmanship.

IDAHO—Harriman backers claimed 13 of state's 24 delegates. Under the unit rule, this would give Harriman all 12 convention votes.

OREGON—Under primary instructions to go down line for Stevenson - Kefauver ticket, delegates took it easy.

UTAH—Majority of 12 votes

Funerals Planned For Two Airmen Road Fatalities

Funeral services for David A. Wilcox, 22, will be held in his home town of Reedsburg, Wis.

Mr. Wilcox died in a traffic accident Sunday just two hours after he was discharged from the service at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Injured in the accident, which occurred on Highway 34, half a mile east of Eagle, were A.I.C. Barry Honan, 20, of Providence, R.I., and A.I.C. Ronald Duker, 21, of Miami, Fla.

Both were treated and released from the hospital. They are members of the 818th Supply Squadron at LAFB.

Services for A.I.C. Harry Ravatt will be held later this month probably at Bordentown, N.J., according to Air Base officials.

Mr. Ravatt was killed in an automobile accident in Great Britain early Saturday. A member of the 307th Field Maintenance Squadron of the Lincoln Air Force Base, he had been on a routine training mission in the British Isles.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Helen Ravatt of Bordentown, two brothers and three sisters.

Hospital Releases TV Star Sullivan And Son-In-Law

DERBY, Conn. (AP)—Television personality Ed Sullivan and Robert H. Precht Jr., his son-in-law, were discharged from Griffin Hospital Monday, a week after they were injured in a Seymour automobile accident.

Sullivan, who conducts a syndicated newspaper column in addition to his "Ed Sullivan Show" on television, left by an emergency door in the rear of the hospital.

Meanwhile Columbia Broadcasting System quoted Sullivan as saying his doctors have advised him not to appear on his CBS TV program for the next three or four weeks, until his "chest injuries are completely healed."

Two other victims of the Aug. 6 accident remained in the hospital.

Chowdry Invited

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Foreign Minister Hamidul Haq Chowdry told newsmen he has been invited by Egyptian President Nasser to confer with him over the Suez issue before he proceeds to London for the Suez conference.

appeared safely in the Harriman column, with Harriman backers claiming minimum of seven.

MAINE—Harriman picked up one heretofore pro-Stevenson delegate, another previously uncommitted and claimed "overwhelming majority" of state's 14 votes.

MINNESOTA—No poll yet taken, but estimates ranged from even split of 30 votes to margin of 20-10 for Harriman. Bulk of delegation reported ready to back ward Symington. Stevenson has the other 22.

IOWA—Split between Harriman and Stevenson, 24-vote delegation will decide at caucus tomorrow whether to count heads.

CONNECTICUT and RHODE ISLAND—Govs. Dennis J. Roberts and Abraham A. Ribicoff said at breakfast for six New England delegations purpose of bringing them together was to increase recognition of area. Each boosted Kennedy for vice president.

NEW JERSEY—Pressure mounted from delegation on Gov. Robert B. Meyner to declare himself favorite son candidate. Meyner had said earlier would not undertake such a role. State's 36 votes uncommitted.

WEST VIRGINIA—Gov. William Marland refused to disclose preference for nomination. A Harriman supporter conceded Stevenson slight current edge in 24-vote delegation.

DELAWARE—Reaffirmed intention to cast all 10 votes, under unit rule, to Stevenson on first ballot.

ILLINOIS—Stevenson appeared sure of minimum 40 votes, although Harriman partisans raised their estimate of strength to 13½ of state's 64 votes.

TENNESSEE—Kefauver conferred with delegates previously aligned to him urging them to rally behind Stevenson.

Stock Volume Melts As Prices Wilt

NEW YORK (AP)—Another slow, uneventful day was staged by the stock market Monday.

Volume continued to melt away as prices wilted.

Leading stocks were down in a range to about $2. Small advances were made by a few pivotal issues.

Turnover amounted to 1,730,000 shares compared with 2,040,000 Friday when the market registered its last day of trading. The 1,730,000 shares traded Friday 2 to 3 to find a more active market on the record.

There was no particular news that could have caused the lack of trading of credit, but the major commercial paper market and interest rates have been steady for months.

Traders and investors seemed better off than they were a few days ago, but as the market continued to come down, the market's price of the market has reached a turning point.

The drop on average represented an estimated decline of about 1/2 point on the Dow Jones industrial average.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined $1.30 to $182.20, the Dow Jones industrial average $1.00 to $182.20, and the utilities down 20 cents.

Over 200 Entries In Dairy Show
BEATRICE, Neb.—The annual 4-H and FFA District Dairy Show to be held at Beatrice Chautauqua Park Tuesday will be the biggest ever according to Robin A. Spence, county agent.
More than 200 entries have been received from eight counties and involving seven breeds. Judge will be Charles Frederick of Clatskanie. Judging will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Following lunch, the District Dairy Show queen will be crowned by Everett Jones, president of the Beatrice Chamber of Commerce, co-sponsors of the show. The girl crowned will be feted later with district dairy queens from eight other districts at the Ak-Sar-Ben Dairy show at Omaha. One of the nine will be named queen of the Rodeo Night.

Following the dairy show, a fitting and showing contest will be held.

Some City Employees To Get Pay Raises

Merit Increases Substituted For Across-The-Board Hikes

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

Salary increases to some city employees on a merit basis were approved Monday night by the City Council in place of across-the-board raises requested by the City Employees Association.

The total cost to the city of all increases was not figured out but was expected to come to about $55,000.

A $25-a-month across the board increase would have cost about $184,000.

In the past 10 years the records of Personnel Director Ray Ram say showed, city employees have received across-the-board increases which total $105 per month.

The fire police and engineering departments were given the lion's share of this year's increase. The engineering increases will go to eight key men with a total tax cost of some $2,000.

Part of the increase to these men will come from non-tax sources such as charges made against improvement districts for the time spent by engineers on the projects. The exact increase to the engineers will be settled at a meeting with the department head Tuesday.

In the fire department, the monthly scale will be changed as follows:

Rank	Present	New
Chief	$1,200	$1,250
Assistant Chief	$1,000	$1,050
Inspector	$800	$850
Engineer	$600	$650

Police Department monthly rate changes:

Rank	Present	New
Chief	$1,200	$1,250
Assistant Chief	$1,000	$1,050
Inspector	$800	$850
Engineer	$600	$650

The Council turned down a request by Welfare and Safety Director Emmett Jung for a longevity wage scale which would give all fire and policemen an extra $5 a month at the end of each 5 years of service up to 15 years.

Besides engineers fire and police the only other adjustments made were:

Stores clerk	$1.27 1/2 per hour to $1.35
Assessor	$4.5 to $4.6 per month
Auto assessor (new position)	$91.75 per month
Labor foreman	$1.15 to $1.50 per hour
Station attendant	$2.66 to $2.75 per month
Shop superintendent	$1.62 1/2 to $1.75 per hour
Motor equipment operator	$1.27 1/2 to $1.35 per hour
Heavy motor equipment operator	$1.45 to $1.55 per hour
Concrete worker	$1.15 to $1.75 per hour
Maintenance repairman	$2.75 to $3.00 per month
Freeman	$1.25 to $1.50 per hour
700 attendant	$1.25 to $1.50 per hour
700 operator	$1.25 to $1.50 per hour
Building superintendent	$314 to $375 per month
Concrete worker	$244 to $260 per month
Sidewalk inspector	$305 to $340 per month

Mayor Bennett Martin said he felt the new scale went a long way in correcting inequalities which existed. Also, he said, the cost of living index has not shown the need for an across the board increase.

Just about one half of all city employees are covered by the adjustments approved by the Council.

Governor's Mansion Dismantled

A work crew from the Men's Reformatory has begun to dismantle the outside of the old governor's mansion. Most of the doors and windows and a considerable amount of the outside wood were removed during the first day's work. (Star Photo)

Sidney Driver Hurt As Auto Overturns

SIDNEY New (P) — Harold Schwartz 22, Sidney is in critical condition in a hospital here of injuries suffered in a one car accident south of Sidney.

Authorities said his car bounced off 14 guard rails on Highway 19 before overturning.

New Mansion General Bids Asked Sept. 11

Governor Victor Anderson said Monday that the state would take grading bids on the new Governor's Mansion August 24 at 3:00 p.m. and would take general contracting bids for the new mansion September 11 at 2 p.m. in the Governor's Hearing Room at the Statehouse.

Anderson said the State is separating the contracts entirely to get the best possible bids. He stated the contracts would be divided in this manner: plumbing and heating, air conditioning and ventilation; electrical wiring, finish hardware, outside cement work (drive and sidewalks), and general contract.

A work crew from the Men's Reformatory started razing the old mansion Monday morning and had removed most of the doors and windows and a considerable amount of the outside wood by Monday evening.

Alley Change Ordinance Is Substituted

An ordinance vacating the west half of the alley from 12th to 13th between M and N has been killed by the City Council and a new one, to accomplish virtually the same thing, introduced and given two readings.

The new ordinance was substituted, according to City Attorney Jack Pace, to provide for use of the existing alley until the new south entrance to the east half of the old alley is dedicated to the city and paved.

The Continental National Bank has asked for the vacation of the west half. The vacation has been opposed by Attorney Max Kier, representing First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The new vacation ordinance will be up for third and final reading next Monday.

Passed on third reading this Monday was an ordinance regulating the direction of flow in alleys.

Rules now in effect:

Alleys running east and west enter from west only and leave at east end only.

Alleys running north and south enter from north and leave by south.

Alleys running north and west in an L shape enter from west and leave by north.

Alleys running south and east enter from south and leave by east.

Good limit in alleys is 10 miles per hour.

Other ordinances approved on third and final reading:

Regulating setback requirements on out side marquee advertising.

First of Jackson Heights first addition at 55th and W. 15th.

Paving of 6th E. to J.

Sever district in 1st, C to E.

An ordinance to change the zoning at 33rd and Merrill from residence to local business classification was unanimously turned down by the Council.

Mrs. McVicker's Coast Rites Held

Funeral services were held Monday in California for a former Lincoln resident, Mrs. Stella Graham McVicker, 84, of Pasadena, who died Friday.

Mrs. McVicker was born at Brownville, Neb., and for several years she taught at Peru State Teachers College. She also taught elocution and music in Lincoln.

She moved to California several years ago following the death of her husband, Joseph R. McVicker. Interment will be here in Wyuka Cemetery later.

Flood Threatens

HONG KONG (P)—Radio Peiping said flood waters threatened the rail hub of Harbin in northeast China and residents of low areas have begun to flee.

Torrential rains followed a typhoon which struck Red China last week and took more than 2,000 lives.

Omahan Suffers Accidental Shot

YANKTON, S.D. (P)—An Omaha man was described as in "good" condition at a Yankton hospital Monday with a gunshot wound received during an outing along Lewis and Clark Lake.

Howard Shurts, 23, was wounded in the abdomen by a bullet from a .22 caliber pistol.

A brother, Charles, said the accident occurred 18 miles west of Yankton, near Crofton Neb. He said Howard was alone but his companions heard his shouts and came to his aid.

Howard said he fell and the pistol discharged accidentally.

Also in the party were another brother, James, and Gerald L. Milne. All are from Omaha, but Milne who is from Norfolk.
